

lettuce knit scowl

This is a cowl/scarf combo. The cowl is created using an l-cord that you can lace up the edges of the scarf, or simply use it as a bow through any of the yarn overs. Thanks to Americo Originals for the original inspiration.

SIZE

about 55" long and 11" wide

MATERIALS

Worsted weight yarn.

2 skeins Illimani Yarns Baby Llama (200m/100g, 100% baby llama) in Cream

DIRECTIONS

Scarf

With one strand of each yarn and using the long tail cast on, cast on 54 stitches.

Rows 1-3: knit.

Row 4 and all RS rows: *k2, yo, k2tog; rep from * to last 2 sts, k2. Row 5 and all WS rows: k2, purl to last 2 sts, k2.

Rep Rows 4 and 5 until piece measures 55" from beginning and there is about 50g of each yarn left.

Knit three rows. Bind off very loosely.

l-cord

Using two 8mm double pointed needles and two strands held together, CO 3 sts.

Slide stitches to other end of needle and K3, repeat until you have three times the length of the scarf.

Cast off loosely. There are good videos on how to knit an l-cord on Youtube (www.youtube.com/watch?v=jcGj6tpqeJA)

FINISHING

Weave in ends. Lace up short ends of scarf using l-cord.
